

Location:

Nam Pha Yai Camp is situated 140 km in the North / North-east of Bangkok, near the little town of Kaeng Khoi and about 30 km from Saraburi.

Get all the access and information about the camp at:

<http://www.namphapayai-camp.com>

Access:

Rock climbing on the cliffs at Nam Pha Pa Yai Camp is free of charge and open to anyone.

The rock climbing safety is an individual responsibility and every climber must be sure to have the correct knowledge and skills to practice in a natural and exposed environment.

The Nam Pha Pa Yai representatives will have no responsibilities for any kind of accident happening on the cliff and the surrounding area.

Hazardous dangers:

- Snakes (pit viper, cobra, royal cobra...), scorpions, centipedes (scolopendra), spiders (tarantula), wasps, bees are often seen. A good observation of the natural area (include the cliff) is the key.

- Rocks fall but also dead tree or branch fall is common on every routes. Helmet is more than advised.

In case of accident the closest hospital is at Saraburi: KASEMRAD HOSPITAL 036-315-555-90

Rock Climbing:

- The grade given for every route on this topo is for moment just a proposal. You are welcome to give your own grade proposal by filling the form (one sheet per route) available at the camp. Route by route the average of the grade given by every climber will provide the final grade.

- Some routes, especially inside the cave, can be dusty. Many brushes are available at the bottom of the cliff or at the camp and every one can use it.

Nature:

- As we are guest of these cliffs and its environment we should keep it clean of any non-organic rubbish. We sometime also drop some plastic or so by mistake. The best is to walk around at the end of the day to collect all the trash. Big bins are available at the camp.

- The bats make their flying show every day at the cave for the sun set. Be sure that there is no ropes or climbers right on the V door of the cave to let the way free way for the bats.

Enjoy trip!

Going Around

Zip Line Rules:

- Maximum 2 people on one pulley.
- Mind your head during the way down. Helmet is advised.
- Never hold the cable during the way down. Never try to break with your hands.
- Hold the carabineer of the pulley to control and land with the legs in front.
- Hold the cable or the tree at the end to skip moving back down the cable.
- Once the cable is clear inform the next people that the way is free.
- When needed someone has to cross to give back all the pulleys to the others.
- Always keep at least one pulley on each side of the zip lines.
- At the end of the day, the last one takes back all the pulleys to the camp site.
